How We Investigate Complaints

The Arizona Attorney General's Office (the "Office") is authorized under A.R.S. § 16-1021 to enforce certain civil and criminal violations of Arizona's election code, codified in Title 16 of the Arizona Revised Statutes. The Office, through the Elections Integrity Unit ("EIU"), accepts electronic complaints submitted online, as well as complaints mailed to the Office. Depending on the nature of the allegations, however, the Office may refer your entire complaint or portions thereof to another state or local agency for investigation and/or enforcement.

If your complaint requires immediate law enforcement intervention due to a crime in progress or an escalating situation, contact your local police department immediately.

Complaints and supporting materials are considered public records, and may be disclosed pursuant to applicable laws. Please ensure your complaint is directed to the appropriate agency (some complaints are processed outside of the Attorney General's Office).

You may use this form to file an election law complaint regarding:

- Voter Registration
- Nominating Procedures/Petition Gathering
- Early Voting
- Election Day/Polling Place Issues
- Election Administration

Please refer to our website to determine the appropriate agency for other complaint types not listed.

How You Can Help Us

To expedite an investigation as much as possible, please provide as much specific information as you can about the alleged violations, such as the dates and times of events, the people present, and the content of any conversations; this should include the name and contact information for other witnesses who are willing to provide evidence about the alleged violations. Also, please include any documents, photographs, videos, or other evidence that support your allegations.

If you are one of a group of people interested in filing a complaint, please select one person to file a complaint and attach written statements from the remaining complainants.

Complaints May Be Mailed To

To submit a complaint about a violation of Election Law, please compete this form, sign it, and mail it to:
Elections Integrity Unit
Office of the Arizona Attorney General
2005 N Central Avenue, 6th Floor
